PTSD/Trauma remains a complex emotional, behavioral and neurological condition that defies uniformity of treatment approaches. This training is designed to explore case studies that indicate the manifestation of PTSD/Trauma and specific evidenced based approaches to treatment. Participants will be provided with a deeper understanding of the etiology (root causality) that leads to PTSD/Trauma symptoms, presentation and diagnosis. Discussion regarding the use of co-occurring or Axis II diagnoses will be discussed including an argument challenging the diagnosis of Personality Disorder with Trauma affected Behaviors. The theories and treatment approaches currently used and cutting edge therapies will be reviewed. Evidenced based approaches to relapse identification specific to PTSD/Trauma patients will be addressed. Additionally participants will be provided with information on assessing and treating Secondary PTSD/Trauma, a condition caused by vicarious trauma exposure.
